

We are excited here at Aladdin to return to STJA for the 2016 - 2017 School Year. Aladdin/Fitz Vogt is happy to introduce Jennifer Gundry as our food service director, and returning Executive Chef Sam Ramer.

Aladdin/Fitz Vogt will bring signature branded concepts to the school food service market and will continue to participate in campus organic/sustainability initiatives. We are keen to adapt and practice the green principles as they change.

Streeter Hall Dining Hall offers:

- More variety/options featuring Aladdin/Fitz Vogt signature brands and street food concepts - each one emphasizing fresh, locally-sourced ingredients
- Deli Station/Pizza Station/Salad Bar/Fresh Soup du Jour
- Hot Grill and exhibition-cooking stations
- LED digital menu boards
- Menus and nutrition information will be available on the SJA Dining Service website
- See reverse side for specific lunch program details for non-boarders

The Common Grounds Café will feature:

- Expanded breakfast, lunch, and a la carte snack menus
- New Frozen Yogurt With assorted toppings

Our Mission:

*"To earn loyal customers by delivering high-value,
Distinctive culinary programs that consistently
Exceed customer expectations."*

In order to obtain the best value, students are encouraged to purchase a complete meal for $3.25

If there are any questions, the cashiers are happy to explain the itemized food costs.

To speak with our Food Service Director Jennifer Gundry directly, please call (802) 748-1041.

Complete meals are available at each food line in accordance with the Vermont Department of Education Child Nutrition Program Requirements

The SJA Dining Services follows a plan that is called "OFFER vs. SERVE".

This means that students must be offered foods from all 5 food groups, but they are only required to take a full portion of three of the five offered items. Under federal guidelines, students must take at least ½ cup of either a fruit or vegetable. Larger portions of fruit and vegetables will be available to those students who want them.

NOTE

* Desserts, chips, and extra items (e.g. a second sandwich or piece of pizza) are not included in the cost of a complete meal.

These items can be purchased for an additional charge.

All items can be purchased a la carte with prices ranging from $.65 to $3.00
